In Justice to Secretary Bryan.

We congratulate the Secretary of the State on the delicacy of the perceptions which impelled him to decline an offer of $300 for a fifteen minute address on any subject at the ring of the St. Nicholas Athletic Club previous to a gloved discussion in ten rounds between Al Palzer, the "Iowa Heavyweight," and Charley Miller, the "Fighting Motorman" of San Francisco, California.

It is encouraging to find that the sense of official dignity and personal propriety is so active in the case of the Secretary of State of the United States of America. Especially the invitation was tempting, but Secretary Bryan does not seem to have hesitated a moment. He immediately instructed his private secretary to telegraph thanks and regrets to the manager of the pugilistic chautauqua.

It is a pleasure to credit the Secretary of State with this unexpected act of self-denial and deliberate renunciation of a gilded opportunity. The Iowa Heavyweight and the Fighting Motorman may experience momentary chagrin, but the rest of Secretary Bryan's fellow countrymen will thank him for upholding, at a considerable loss in dollars, the dignity of the Federal Administration. The President, too, must be gratified.—The New York Sun.
